Shaping Survival-Lanniko L. Lee 2006

Four American Indian women, who attended Bureau of Indian Affairs boarding schools, off-reservation public schools, and Indian mission schools, unflinchingly recount the experiences that shaped their views on individual, family, and community survival. Their stories give graphic evidence of the mistreatment of native children in many of these schools during the middle and later years of the twentieth century. The stories of the lives of these women are highly instructive as enlightened documents of reconciliation and human possibilities.

The Lawman Claims His Bride & The Gunman's Bride-Renee Ryan 2020-03-03

To love and protect... The Lawman Claims His Bride by Renee Ryan For five years, US Marshal Logan Mitchell has dreamed of returning to his sweetheart in Denver. He never imagined he'd find Megan Goodwin in prison. Megan has no memory of what happened the night the outlaw was murdered. Remembering the killer's identity will clear Megan's name, but could lead danger right to her door... The Gunman's Bride by Catherine Palmer Bart Kingsley had followed Laura Rose to New Mexico, ready to lay his love—and his life—on the line. But the spirited Rosie hadn't left her controlling father to let some gunslinging outlaw ruin her hopes—no matter what scandalous past they shared six years ago! Bart would do anything to win back her trust, but he's a wanted man. Will the past conspire to destroy their new beginning?

slinging outlaw ruin her hopes--no matter what scandalous past they shared six years ago. Or how his green eyes beckoned! Rosie was his light in the darkness--Bart would do anything to win back her trust. But he was a wanted man. Would the past, with its dangerous demands and debts, conspire to destroy their new beginning? Or would his faith in God--and in Rosie--be rewarded?
